Dated, Agartala the 30th September, 2020

Dear Bankim,

I would like to appreciate all the hard work and diligent effort that you have put into for successful planning and execution of the non-Government and non-Treasury fund management for all the educational institutions and organization under Education (Higher) Department, Government of Tripura.

I would like to thank you for your services that you have rendered for developing an internal fund management system, and which has been successfully implemented and executed by the name of 'Process for Internal Restructuring of System of Accounting' or in short 'PIRSA' in the 22 General Degree Colleges, 07 Technical Institutes, 05 Professional Colleges and 26 Libraries under the control of the Education (Higher) Department. It was your persistent hard work and research that has given us such a fruitful result for the first time in the form of proper, systematic and uniform books of accounts maintenance and records keeping system along with maximum additional revenue generating facility in the colleges and institutions. Your dedication to work, desire to find the new ways of achieving goals, progressive & constructive thinking and your involvement in planning, designing and execution of proper fund management system for the libraries of the State including Birchandra State Central Library (BCSCL) is unparalleled.

We are grateful to have you as one of the faculty members as well as Officer on Special Duty (Finance) of the Education (Higher) Department for your innovative thoughts in making every institution and organization financially sound as possible and appreciate your dedication and amiable work ethic.

Wishing you best for your future endeavors.
